

Testimonials

"Matthew brings Elvis to a new level. He isn't any impersonator, in his way of doing Elvis (and the songs Elvis might has done), it's another level in doing an Elvis tribute. For me as an Elvis fan there is a new dimension listening to songs that Elvis was into doing or just did a few lines of. Matthew has a way to bring the audience along the musical trip. You are invited to a journey when Matthew entertains, and you better buckle up."

"I saw Elvis ten times in 1976, and you were great!"

~Concert Attendee

"Matt, I absolutely love your voice! The depth and tone is absolutely beautiful, and I can definitely see Elvis singing any of these songs that you have sung here, you have made some excellent choices I must say."

Testimonials

"As an ace up its sleeve, Elvisforum was able to present the American shooting star Matthew Zeiss, who moved to Sweden because of love, for the Elvis Festival in Jönköping 2022. This guy has a warm and powerful voice, with a lot of power, which is just as good for emotional ballads as it is for heavy rock songs. He has a natural nice vibrato, a wide vocal range and is very confident in tone. It's not often that I am as impressed as I was by Matthew. And with a voice so close to Elvis, it's a pure treat to hear him sing Elvis songs, and even songs he thinks Elvis might have wanted to sing in, if only he'd lived longer. Matthew radiates joy and warmth on stage and, just like Elvis, he is also a very nice and lovely guy with humor and charm, but with his own style and talent. I look forward to hearing more from him in the future!!"

"The first time I heard Matthew was at the Elvis festival. I had no expectations and thought he was like all the artists there. It's not often I get the pleasure of hearing new singers/artists who are really good. I was so surprised. Best I've heard in years. A voice that gives me so much joy and a longing to hear more. His interpretations of Elvis are so good. Songs that Elvis recorded and songs that he might have recorded. A voice that appeals and a feeling for the music that is unique. If you have the chance to listen, take it. No one goes unmoved by his interpretations of the songs. A clear talent that must be heard and seen. And I wait and long until I have the joy of hearing everything again.

"Matthew is a fantastic artist, with a magnificent voice that captures you immediately! He is simply great as an Elvis Tribute Artist, but also amazing in the way he sings other songs that Elvis most probably would have wanted to sing too, if he had lived longer. He gives you a great show, and he is also a very friendly man who is very down to earth. I certainly look forward to seeing his coming appearances and shows!"
